

Optional excursions

Once there you will have the option of excursions to:

Bandia National Park

A four wheel drive safari with a professional guide to a protected animal reserve, set in a forest of 3,500 hectares. There are so many animal species in Senegal: buffalo, kobus, impala antelopes, warthog, patas monkey, green monkey, tortoises, crocodiles... As well as South African species: white rhinoceros, great kudus, oryx, Cape buffalo, girafes, ostriches, zebra...

Historical Gorée Island - Dakar

Cross over by longboat from the port of Dakar. A superb panorama greets you as you arrive on this volcanic island. Lanes full of flowers, and alleyways of baobabs right up to the promontory opening out onto a splendid view of the Bay of Dakar. You can visit the House of Slaves, accompanied by a moving commentary by the Curator. Lunch at the beach. In Dakar, you can visit markets, etc.

Sine Saloum Islands

...Where everything started. Sine Saloum is a nature reserve and classified by UNESCO as a "World Biosphere Reserve". A paradise of silence at the confluence of two rivers, the Sine and the Saloum. Hundreds of islands and islets covered in mangroves and mangrove swamps. A huge variety of birds including pelicans, pink flamingos, cormorants and African egrets.

And many more excursions besides....

Your Stay

Let me tell you about the journey and dance workshop to Saly Portudal, which is south of Dakar. Senegal is home to some of the most beautiful bird sanctuaries in the world and a showcase for modern Africa. Senegal boasts a fabulous living and cultural heritage. You are sure to be moved by "Teranga", the famed warm and colourful hospitality of the Senegalese people. The beauty, the diversity of the landscapes... and the Senegalese humour will prove irresistible.

Accommodation is in a hotel by the sea with a lagoon pool, fitness centre, spa (Number 1 balneotherapy centre in West Africa)...
